

About

Stéphanie Junod is specialized in intellectual property, art and contract law. She provides advice to clients in the fields of advanced technologies, data, copyright and entertainment, as well as in relation to complex commercial contracts and unfair competition law. She is also active in the areas of life sciences and luxury goods. She represents clients in proceedings before Swiss courts and assists them with the strategic management of their intellectual property rights.

Practice Areas

Arts, Media & Digital Marketing
Entertainment & Sponsoring
Intellectual Property
Data Protection, Privacy & Cybersecurity
IT, Outsourcing & XaaS Solutions
Life Sciences & Health
Commercial Contracts
Litigation & Mediation
Unfair Practices

Experience & Career

2023 Senior Associate at id est avocats
2019 Associate at id est avocats
2016 Associate at Walder Wyss
2014 Legal trainee at Gross & Associés

Education

2019 LL.M., Queen Mary University of London (distinction, Norman Palmer scholarship)
2016 Admission to the bar
2013 MLaw, University of Fribourg
2012 Academic exchange program at Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg
2011 BLaw, University of Fribourg

Selected Publications & Presentations

Guest lecturer at the Haute école d'art et de design, Geneva (HEAD) in intellectual property law in Geneva since 2022

Guest lecturer at the Ecole Cantonale d'Art de Lausanne (ECAL) in intellectual property law since 2020

The Application of Anti-Money Laundering Regulatory Norms to the Art Market, in the United Kingdom and Switzerland, in Art & Law Magazine, Issue 9 (2019), 6-13

