

About

Before joining id est avocats in October 2021 as a junior associate (avocate-stagiaire), Anne Morel gained extensive experience working for nearly 20 years in the legal departments of two world-renowned Swiss based companies.

In parallel to her professional activity as a paralegal, Anne Morel undertook law studies with the University Distance Learning (UniDistance). She obtained her Bachelor of Law degree in January 2020 with magna cum laude, followed by a Master's degree from the University of Lausanne Law School with a specialization in litigation (magna cum laude).

Experience & Career

- 2021 Junior associate (avocate-stagiaire) at id est avocats
- 2011 Paralegal at SICPA
- 2000 Paralegal at Nestlé

Education

- 2022 MLaw, University of Lausanne (magna cum laude)
- 2020 BLaw, UniDistance (magna cum laude)
- 2007 Certificate in Business Practice, Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators, London

Publications & Presentations

Les procédures d'autorisation applicables aux voies cyclables en temps de COVID-19, Master's thesis published on the Lausanne academic server (SERVAL) as part of Law School's best theses, 7 January 2022

