About

Before joining id est avocats in February 2024 as a junior associate (avocat-stagiaire), Luis Stettler obtained a Bachelor of Law degree at the University of Lausanne, during which he went on a Swiss mobility exchange at the University of Zurich. He then completed a Master of Law degree in Lausanne, summa cum laude, with an exchange at the Freie Universität in Berlin. Interested in intellectual property law and new technologies, he wrote a master's thesis in the field of copyright law.

In parallel to his studies, Luis Stettler had the opportunity to work for a music Label in Lausanne, as an ad hoc clerk at the Criminal Chamber of the Lausanne District Tribunal, and as an assistant in a law firm. He was also active in the student association organizing the music festival of the University of Lausanne.

After his Master degree, he completed a legal internship at the Swiss Federal Institute of Intellectual Property.

He practices in French, English and German, and has good knowledge of Portuguese.
